

2009 ENTRY FORM

Thank you for entering the 2009 Spartans Abroad Photo Contest! Your photos will be evaluated by a team of judges from across campus (staff from the Office of Study Abroad do not judge photos) and may be selected among hundreds of inspiring photos to win a top prize in the contest. Winning photographs will be displayed at Study Abroad Fairs, included in future Office of Study Abroad (OSA) publications/videos, and showcased on the OSA Web site.

By entering the contest you will be giving OSA permission to use your photo(s) in various marketing activities, publications, and/or on the Web for the purpose of promoting study abroad at Michigan State University. This means all photos, not just winning entries, will be eligible for inclusion in such activities.

To enter, read the rules of the contest below, complete the form on the back, and return the form to OSA by November 2, 2009.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Entrants must be students who have participated in, and earned credit in, an MSU-sponsored study abroad program. This includes current students as well as recent graduates; MSU students as well as students from other universities who went on an MSU program.

Photos must be original work (no professional photos will be accepted) and have been taken by the entrant during the entrant's study abroad program or by another participant on the entrant's program.

A maximum of two photos may be submitted per entrant.

Photos may be color, black & white, or sepia, and may be submitted as prints or digital images.

DIGITAL IMAGES:

- ✓ may be submitted on disk or e-mailed to bennerc@msu.edu
- ✓ should have a resolution of 300 dpi or higher (preferred, not required)
- ✓ the image file must be titled to correspond with your entry form

PRINTS:

- ✓ must include the entrant's name and title of the photo on the back of each print (do not use markers as they may smear on your photos)

A completed entry from MUST accompany every entry. If submitting digital photos via e-mail, your entry form may be scanned and submitted with your photo(s). You can also cut and paste the entry form into an e-mail and include an electronic signature.

Entries must be received no later than 5:00 p.m., November 2, 2009 at the Office of Study Abroad, 105 International Center. Entries received after the deadline will not be eligible so be sure to allow plenty of time if submitting entries via mail or e-mail.

AWARDS

Winning entries will be selected based on the best quality photographs that are clearly identifiable as a location outside of the United States. Photos should capture images of students interacting with local populations and/or portray the essence of the entrant's study abroad experience. While landscape shots are beautiful, we're really looking for photos that tell us about your study abroad experience!

Prizes will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners, as well as Honorable Mention awards for each region of the world (Africa, Americas, Antarctica/Arctic, Asia, Europe, Middle East, and Oceania). A complete list of prizes and their sponsors can be found on the Web <http://studyabroad.msu.edu/photocontest.html>. (NOTE: If you live out of the area, please be advised most prizes are donated by local East Lansing/Lansing area businesses.)

Winners will be notified by e-mail in mid-November and will be officially announced during International Education Week on Friday, November 20, 2009. Negatives or original digital images may be required, especially if entrant has been chosen for a top prize. It is strongly suggested that entrants have their negatives or original images easily accessible in the event they are chosen as a winner.

Only one award per entrant will be given.

Judges decisions are final.

ALL photos (both winners and non-winners) will become the property of the Office of Study Abroad and will not be returned. Be sure to make copies!

GOOD LUCK!

☺ Originality counts! Try not to duplicate photos - take a look at last year's entries and winners on the Web to see what has won in the past and which photos seem to have multiple entries.

☺ Be sure to title your photo – creative titles may help an entry stand out – but be sure to keep it short.

☺ While it's not a requirement to win the contest, photos with students wearing MSU apparel tend to get used more in our publications and/or publicity for the MSU.
